3. Hours of Work

The Employee's ordinary hours are 38 hours per week. The Employee may be required to work reasonable additional hours to meet business needs. The base salary is intended to compensate for reasonable additional hours.

4. Remuneration

The Employer will pay the Employee a base salary of $115,000.00 per annum, paid fortnightly in arrears by electronic funds transfer into a nominated account. The salary will be reviewed annually each July. A review does not guarantee an increase.

5. Superannuation

The Employer will make superannuation contributions of 12% of ordinary time earnings into a complying fund nominated by the Employee. If no fund is nominated, contributions will be paid to the Employer's default fund.

6. Leave

The Employee is entitled to annual leave, personal/carer's leave, compassionate leave, parental leave and community service leave in accordance with the National Employment Standards. Public holidays are observed as gazetted for Townsville, Queensland.

7. Confidentiality

The Employee must not, during or after employment, disclose or use any confidential information of the Employer except as required to perform their duties or as required by law. This includes customer lists, pricing, source code, system credentials and business plans.

8. Intellectual Property

All intellectual property created by the Employee in the course of employment, including software, documentation and designs, is owned by the Employer from the moment of creation.

9. Policies

The Employee must comply with the Employer's policies as amended from time to time, including the Code of Conduct, Information Security Policy and Work Health and Safety Policy. Policies do not form part of this contract.

10. Termination

After the probationary period, either party may terminate this contract by giving four weeks' written notice. The Employer may pay the Employee in lieu of notice. The Employer may terminate without notice for serious misconduct.

11. Return of Property

On termination the Employee must return all Employer property, including a laptop (Asset No. CRL-LT-0912), access card, and any documents or data in their possession.

12. Entire Agreement

This contract, together with the Schedule and Position Description, forms the entire agreement between the parties and replaces any prior offers or representations. It is governed by the laws of Queensland, Australia.
